JULY. V Month.

When great Auguſtus rul'd the World and Rome,
The Cloth he wore was ſpun and wove at Home,
His Empress ply'd the Diſtaff and the Loom.
Old England's Laws the proudeſt beauty name,
When ſingle, Spinſter, and when married, Dame,
For Houſewifery is Woman's nobleſt Fame.
The Wiſeſt houſhold Cares to Women yield,
A large, an uſeful, and a grateful Field.

1	8 A. 57	1 M. 35	4	On the 1ſt of this month Anno 1690, was
2	9 27	2 24	5	fought the memorable battle of the Boyne, in
3	9 54	3 13	6	Ireland; when God crown'd our great deliverer,
4	10 18	4 0	7	King William, with ſucceſs and victory. He
5	10 41	4 48	7	was one of the right ſort of Heroes. Your true
6	11 11	5 36	8	hero fights to preſerve, and not to deſtroy, the 7	11 44	6 24	9	lives, liberties, and eſtates, of his people. His
8	12 18	7 14	10	neighbours alſo, and all that are oppreſs'd, ſhare
9	M. 18	8 3	11	his cares and his protection. But this ſort is thin
10	0 57	8 55	11	ſown, and comes up thinner. Hercules was one,
11	1 48	9 47	12	among the ancients; and our glorious Billy, of
12	2 44	10 36	1	Cumberland, another among the moderns; God
13	Moon	11 25	2	bleſs him! I might have mention'd, in the month
14	ſets	A. 10	3	of April, his happy victory over the rebels; who,
15	A. 0	54	3	with the united aſſiſtance of the kings of France and
16	8 15	1 36	4	Spain, the Pope and the Devil, threatened deſtruc-
17	8 36	2 17	5	tion to our religion and liberties; but had all their
18	8 59	2 59	5	ſchemes defeated by this battle. The ſacred
19	9 19	3 41	6	names of juſtice and religion were made uſe of
20	9 49	4 27	7	as the cloaks of that invaſion, wicked as it was.
21	10 18	5 15	8	A pretended prince was to be reſtor'd to his rights,
22	10 57	6 8	9	forſooth; and we were all to be converted to the
23	11 40	7 3	10	Catholick faith! Strada ſays, that when the duke
24	12 35	8 3	11	of Parma heard of the defeat of the Spaniſh Ar-
25	M. 35	9 3	12	mada, in 1588 (which by the way happen'd the
26	1 42	10 4	1	21ſt of this ſame month) he ſaid very piouſly,
27	2 59	11 6	2	That it was an enterprize ſo well concerted, as
28	4 8	12 4	3	nothing could have diſappointed but the ſins of the
29	Moon	M. 4	3	people of England. It ſeems they were unworthy
30	riſes	1 4	4	ſo great a bleſſing. And he makes this further
31	8 A. 23	1 56	4	reflection on queen Elizabeth's proclaiming a thankſgiving: Miſtaken woman! Blind nation! ſays he, to return thanks for the greateſt misfortune that could have befallen them! For had that enterprize ſucceeded, they would all have been converted to the true Catholick Faith. The moſt chriſtian king, and his catholick majeſty, and his Holineſs, and the ſham defender of the faith, (Fine titles all!) have now an opportunity of making the ſame pious reflections.
